Dear Friends,

Happy New Year. I can finally get back to you with some definite information. I have personally contacted Eddy, Suzie, Karen, Shelby, Jeff Fine, Neil, Michael, Leslie, and Gordon. All of these classmates will be making every effort to join us on November 28, 1980. I have Jeff Dworkin's address but I still need more specific information on Nancy Simon, Larry Levine, and Lynn Golder. I have been trying to reach these people through their families. I will keep on trying.

Karen, Suzie, Eddy, and I will be celebrating our Bar or Bat Mitvahs that evening. We never got the chance to do this in the sixties. We will be studying hard! Gordon, if all goes well, will present the sermon, and Rabbi Dan will say a few words, too. We will all participate in the service in some way.

The service on the Friday evening will begin about 8 p.m. I believe, We will need to meet with Rabbi Dan at 10 a.m. on Friday morning to go over the service and get things set. We will sponsor an oneg after the service for all those in attendance. I anticipate this will cost us each about 15 dollars. My folks offered to help out with champagne in honor of the occasion. Any other interested parents are welcome to join in this endeavor, I am sure.

We will be inviting all the members of the 1961 confirmation class, too. Hopefully a few will show up. We will be printing up some invitations to send to former teachers. (I ran into a couple and each said, "Oh, you are going to invite me, aren't you?") If you want any let me know and I will get you some.

That's about all. Keep in touch. (216-321-9292) See you in November.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Susan Diane Kamenir

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I cannot tell you how very much last evening meant to me. I was so happy that you were there with us. It is a lovely honor which I shall treasure always.

Thank you also for the lovely gift. I am very excited to own another volume of your father's. It will be next on my reading list and will always hold a treasured spot in my library.

I'm so glad you are my rabbi and my friend.

Many thanks,
Susie

Dear Susie,

It was a lovely evening. You prepared a beautiful service for us and you all looked so happy and mature that it warmed the cockles of my heart. It was a pleasure to share the Sabbath with you.
