OUR GUEST — FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

The cities we live in are crowded, smog shrouded and violent. The streets are cold, impersonal. Public buildings are designed as fortresses with constant television supervision, barred windows and high walls. Bright lights shine long into the night to frustrate would-be thieves.

What has happened to our cities? We once thought of the city as the mother of civilization. Cities were exciting places full of color, challenge and culture, not carbon monoxide exhaust and hurrying people too frightened to smile at a passerby. To answer this question we have invited as our 1970 Harry D. and Lillian P. Koblitz Memorial lecturer, Mr. Irving Kristol, one of the most original and incisive students of the American city.

Officially, Mr. Kristol is Henry R. Luce Professor of Urban Values at New York University and editor of "The Public Interest," perhaps the leading thought-journal on contemporary problems. Unofficially he is the city's diagnostician consulted by all her doctors. In recent months his views have been quoted and misquoted by President Nixon and the Vice President as well as by leading planners throughout the country. You may have read some of his more recent articles in the Sunday magazine of the New York Times. Others of you

STATE OF ISRAEL BONDS TO HONOR ERNEST SIEGLER

ERNEST H. SIEGLER

Max J. Eisner, President, announced that the Temple will hold a Testimonial Dinner in honor of Ernest H. Siegler.

The dinner will take place on Sunday, December 27 at the Shaker-Richmond Branch, and Lawrence H. Williams is dinner chairman.

Mr. Siegler is a Vice President of The Temple. He is a Past President of the Jewish Community Center, President of the Anti-Defamation League of Cleveland, B'nai B'rith, Past Chairman of the Builders Division, Jewish Welfare Fund, and has been active on behalf of State of Israel Bonds since the inception of the program in Cleveland.

Membership in the Temple Women's Association is one way of demonstrating a positive commitment to the Temple as well as to Reform Judaism; it indicates a concern for constructive activity within the framework of our congregational structure.

Although the TWA has broadened the scope of its programming as the needs of The Temple and the community have changed, its primary function is to serve The Temple to the best of its ability. As the congregation has grown, and as the society in which we live has become more complex, the need for strengthening and personalizing relationships has increased. This is one of the primary objectives of the Membership Department. Although much of the Department's time is devoted to enrolling members, more is spent in contact with individual members not only of the TWA but of The Temple congregation.

The Membership Department has the responsibility of delivering flowers to Temple members in the hospital; the writing of hundreds of letters during the year offering congratulations on happy occasions and sympathy at sad times. New mothers receive a copy of our lovely baby prayer, shut-ins are visited from time to time. But, everything we do depends upon the information we receive. We never intentionally slight anyone but we can only provide service when we know about people and their needs of the moment. We hope our members will keep us informed about events in the lives of our fellow-members because we have no other way of getting our information.

Many hospitals refuse access to their files so we don't often know who is hospitalized unless we are called. Please feel free to call me, Mildred (Mrs. Herman) Davidson at 751-8527 at any time to tell me especially about those who may not have family members who could call on their behalf. If I'm not available the Temple office is always as close as your telephone.

Delivering flowers to the hospitals on Friday evening or Sunday morning requires a great deal of womanpower during the course of the year; it also provides a measure of satisfaction to the women who do it. If you feel you would like to help, please call me, Mildred (Mrs. Herman) Davidson.

ANNUAL COLLEGE HOMECOMING

On Tuesday, December 29, our college students are invited to our Temple Branch for sherry and canapes beginning at 1:30 p.m. A discussion will follow the sherry hour. All are invited to renew old acquaintances and exchange ideas.

Dear Dr. Kristol:

I want to renew an invitation I extended at the end of last year for you to come to The Temple on a Sunday morning and deliver the Koblitz Memorial Lecture for this year. This lectureship was designed years ago to bring to our pulpit men and women who are significantly involved in the crucial issues of our national life. Needless to say we would like you to speak on some aspect of the urban crisis, perhaps because of our unique problems here, your thoughts about the emerging patterns of urban leader-ship.

This lecture is given in conjunction with our Sunday morning service which begins at 10:30. There is a brief liturgy and then a thirty-five or forty minute period for the lecture.

You will find a fine congregation. This lecture is one which always receives excellent coverage in our local press. We hope you would remain with us for lunch. It would be possible for us to hold this lecture on either Sunday, November 29th, Sunday, December 6th or Sunday, December 13th. There is an honorarium of $600.00 and we would, of course, defray all expenses.

I trust this letter finds you in good health. I remember with pleasure our conversation in your office in Basic Books several

Mr. Kristol was born in New York City in 1920; graduated from City College in 1940; he was from 1947 to 1952 managing editor of Commentary Magazine; he was co-founder and editor (along with Stephen Spender) of Encounter Magazine from 1953 to 1958; from 1959 to 1960 he was editor of The Reporter Magazine; from 1961 to 1969 he was executive Vice President of Basic Books, Inc., a New York publishing house; in 1969 he was appointed Henry R. Luce Professor of Urban Values at New York University, which position he still holds; he is also co-editor, along with Daniel Bell, of The Public Interest Magazine.
