Dear Dr. Beckham:

I am writing this letter to you on behalf of Leonard Zoll who, I understand, has applied for the position as head of the Jewish Student Organization at the university.

Leonard worked with me for two years about a decade ago in the post of Assistant Rabbi. I found him to be a conscientious and hard-working colleague who related well to young people and possessed unfailing good humor. He is well qualified by his training to conduct classes in basic Jewish Studies and by virtue of his experience to organize programs of Jewish interest and worship.

It is a pleasure to commend him to you.

Sincerely,

Daniel Jeremy Silver

Dear Ms. Sloan:

I am writing to you in reply to your letter of July 7 concerning Karen Taylor. Karen is a lovely young woman who has been in our school since Kindergarten. She is an attractive child who has made many friends and is well liked by faculty as well as students. Her work is more than adequate and she is willing to stretch herself when it is asked of her.

As you know, she has been through a difficult family situation and I was impressed by the mature way in which she handled her grief and understandable anxiety.

I am very pleased to recommend her to you.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

As I told you on the phone, my friend, Paul Shetler, and I hope to be in Israel the first week of January and we are interested in the possibility of meeting Father Marcel Dubois, head of the Philosophy Department of Hebrew University. We learned about him from a book review of "In the Land of Israel" by Amos Oz.

Paul, a Cleveland, attends Columbia University (he is much younger than I). He was raised as a Catholic but wandered far from the Church during his teens and early twenties. Then, last summer when he and I were in Rome, he had a series of long talks with Father Orlando Prosperi, an American priest who is stationed there. As a result he seriously considered going into the priesthood and Father Prosperi recommended him to the noted Jesuit theologian, Father John Hardon, in New York. Paul decided not to go any further at this time but he remains interested. I might add that he has one of the finest intellects I have ever encountered and he seems to have read almost everything.

I am sure Father Dubois would find Paul of greater interest than me (based on what I have written), but I, too, have been going through some kind of religious or spiritual quest or at least questioning.

The best days for us to be in Jerusalem are January 4th and 5th.

On Friday, January 6th we hope to go ^{to} Saint Catherine's Monastery in the Sinai for the Christmas Eve services--if we can find a way of getting there and the procedure for getting permission to stay in the Monastery overnight. I know two Israeli who have stayed there, but that was under very different circumstances.

It was good to talk with you. Thank you for your help. And I look forward to seeing you after the trip.

Sincerely,

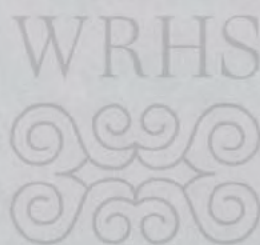

Richard Haber

Dear Father Dubois:

I am writing on behalf of Paul Shetler and Richard Haber who will be visiting in Israel in early January.

Richard is a member of my congregation and Paul is a young Catholic who's studying at Columbia University and who has been interested in recent years in the possibility of entering the priesthood.

Both men have serious philosophic and theologic interests and would appreciate having the opportunity to visit with you to discuss some of these concerns. Apparently they will be in Jerusalem on the 4th and 5th of January and will call you at that time. I appreciate any time that you can give to them.

16 January, 1984

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I appreciate your agreement to write letters of recommendation for me for graduate study in social work. I am applying to:

1) The University of Chicago
The School of Social Service Administration
969 East Sixtieth Street
Chicago, Ill. 60637

2) University of Pennsylvania
School of Social Work
3701 Locust Walk
Philadelphia, Pa. 19104

3) School of Applied Social Sciences
Case Western Reserve University
2035 Abington Road
Cleveland, Ohio 44106

4) University of Denver
Graduate School of Social Work
Denver, Colorado 80208

I have enclosed reference forms provided by the universities. The University of Denver only asks that I list the names and addresses of persons who will write references if the University feels they are necessary. I have also enclosed a copy of my resume which had been printed prior to my beginning work with the City Prosecutor. Please excuse the handwritten additions; it did not seem necessary to re-draft the entire resume.

My resume obviously shows that my experiences have been varied, a fact which has given me some difficulty in writing responses to the questions asked in the applications. I cannot impose an overall order on a career path which has not followed such a plan. (A good friend, and a journalist, has admonished that to do so would only be contrived.) I cannot say that each of my jobs has moved me inexorably toward an ultimate decision to apply to MSW programs. Since leaving college, however, each of those experiences has given me greater exposure to people and to the range of problems they suffer.

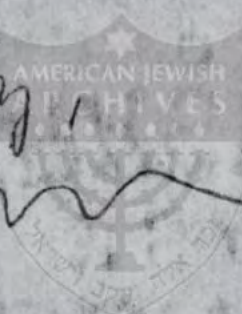

I began law school with the goal of helping people through the legal process. I found the study of law extremely discouraging: it was tedious, excessively formalistic and academic. Above all, I was frustrated by the reliance on precedent as the theoretical basis for all lawmaking, making it loathe to change. Notwithstanding the wisdom and farsightedness of many judicial decisions, it seems to me that there is also a need for more individualized, practical solutions to everyday problems.

Working in the Prosecutor's office has given me the opportunity to see firsthand how the legal system operates, how the theory is put into practice. I don't need to elaborate on how imperfect is our system of justice, especially criminal justice. What troubles me is not so much those imperfections, but the extreme limitations of the justice system as a means through which people can solve their problems. Social work seems to offer greater creative latitude in solving those problems; it is not, for example, constrained by "burdens of proof" or statutes of limitations or overcrowded jails and dockets. There are, of course, problems inherent in social work practice, perhaps the greatest being a lack of sufficient funds. I would like the opportunity to work in a field which includes, broadly, law, social and public policy, and as a social worker to contribute my experience and the expertise I cultivate to help other people better their lives.

Again, I truly appreciate your taking the time to write recommendations for me. I'll let you know the results.

Fondly,
Pam

Dear Mr. Dobrof:

This letter is to recommend Ilona K. Neustadt. Ilona is an unusual woman. She is talented and vitally interested in the problems of the day and in people who make up the various communities of which she is a part.

An excellent organizer she has, almost single-handedly, been responsible for an ongoing family-oriented worship program at The Temple which is now in its fourth year. People respond to her energy, spirit and intelligence. A warm and understanding parent, she has many interests and her mind is full and insightful.

I had the pleasure of teaching a course at CWRU-SASS some years ago for students preparing themselves to work in the social institutions of the Jewish community and it would have been a pleasure to have her in my class.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is a letter of recommendation for Mr. Yitzhak Barmor.

Mr. Barmor has been my Lecturer in Hebrew for the past two academic years; I have been extremely pleased with his effectiveness--he has succeeded in laying the foundation for the study of second-year (and possibly) third-year Hebrew at this University. I have observed him in the (elementary) classroom many times: he is a superbly gifted teacher, clear in his explanations, very patient with the students, rigorous in his approach to language study, and at the same time well liked by the students.

If we were living in more prosperous times, I would try to give Mr. Barmor a freer hand--to let him teach more advanced and more sophisticated courses. Alas! this is not possible at the moment, but I do hope that some institution makes full use of his talents. I would hate to lose his services for CWRU, but I do think he deserves a full-time position in Hebrew (possibly in combination with Comparative Literature, which is his real field of interest).

Sincerely yours,

I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of Yitzhak Barmor. Mr. Barmor has taught Hebrew in our Religious School for the past four years and has occupied the post of Supervisor of the Hebrew Department for the last two. He is a fine linguist, an able and natural teacher whose wide range of interests and reading contribute a great deal to every class. I found him to be inventive in devising of classroom techniques and to be a patient and understanding mentor.

If The Temple had an adult Hebrew program I would be the first to hire Mr. Barmor for that position. As a member of the faculty of CWRU, it was partially on my recommendation that he was hired to teach Hebrew on that campus. I have had several of his students in my classes and they are admirably prepared.

Recently, Harry started serving a prison sentence of three years at the Allenwood Federal Prison Camp as a result of his conviction for mail fraud, tax evasion, and a false Security Exchange Act filing in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio.

Harry has advised me that you are a long-time friend and/or acquaintance. As such, and on his behalf, I would like to solicit your assistance by having you author a letter, with the salutation "To Whom It May Concern", describing your feelings and concerns for Harry. My intention is to collect letters from various individuals and forward them to the United States Parole Board and/or file them with the Court. I would like to provide the Court and Parole Board with different viewpoints about Harry's character so as to present a basis for mitigating his term of incarceration or to obtain favorable parole treatment.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter, and I look forward to hearing from you in the near future. If you should have any questions regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me at my office.

Dear Ms. Paturzo:

I have known Greg Bedol all of his life. He comes from a fine home which has encouraged him to develop excellent values and a concept of community service. In addition to his native intelligence, he has developed many interests which have given him great pleasure and a many faceted personality. He is an agreeable human being and an honorable one.

One example is perhaps worth a thousand words. Several years ago he had agreed to present a dramatic program to students in the Religious School. On the way to the School, through no fault of his own, he was involved in an automobile accident in which he was badly shaken up. He insisted on coming ahead and presenting the program before he would take the time to visit the doctor to be sure that he was in good shape.

It is a pleasure to commend him to you.

Sincerely,

Daniel Jeremy Silver

Gentlemen:

I am pleased to recommend to you Lawrence A. Forman for the Doctor of Ministry in Ministry Program.

Rabbi Forman has had a long and effective career in the congregational ministry. I came to know him nearly twenty years ago when he joined me at The Temple as an assistant. He remained with us for seven good years and I watched him mature from a student into an experienced rabbi. He related beautifully with all age groups. His counseling was patient and skillful and his devotion to his work exceptional. We worked in close harmony and I was pleased, and not surprised, when he was offered an important pulpit of his own in Norfolk where he has served with distinction and skill ever since.

Some ministers serve their congregations but neglect their families. Larry always made the time to be the husband and father he wanted to and his marriage and children do him credit. There is always a bit of luck involved in how children turn out, but these reflect the fine qualities of their home.

I would recommend Rabbi Forman to you unconditionally.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I was sorry to hear that you have not been feeling well. I hope that your recovery is a speedy one and that you are "back on your feet" soon.

I am writing to request a favor, if you feel up to it. As you already know, I have applied Early Action to Harvard, and I am very excited about it! I visited the school in early October and fell in love with it.

If you feel it is appropriate and if you are physically able, I would greatly appreciate it if you could write a letter of recommendation for me. If you would like to talk to me or would like any other information, please let me know. Admissions decisions for Early Action are generally made around the first week of December.

Once again, I hope you are feeling better soon. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Julie

My dear friends:

As a Harvard alumnus ('48) and the parent of two Harvard graduates, I want to commend to you Julie Anne Mann for admission to next year's freshman class.

I have been Rabbi of The Temple in Cleveland for the past thirty years and as such have taught and worked with hundreds of young people. A few always stand out because of some special qualities and Julie is one of these. She is an intelligent, pert and many-talented young woman who knows her mind and has that special independence of spirit which, I think, is needed to take full advantage of Harvard. Julie has been active in all facets of our school and youth community and has shown initiative and an ability to follow through with the responsibilities she accepts. Her interests are varied and reflect not only her personality but the many-sided cultural and community involvements of her family.

I believe that Julie would be an asset to the Harvard community.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

Thank you for your interest in helping my daughter, Laura, with her application to Hawken Upper School.

As you know, Laura is presently fifteen years old and is in the current Temple confirmation class. She is applying for a position in the 1986/87 Hawken Sophomore class. She is an extremely studious and conscientious student and has maintained extremely high academic honors during her years at Laurel School. She is also becoming a very proficient ballet dancer and is currently a member of the Ballet Jeunesse Dance Company. She takes ballet lessons twice each week and the company performs several times each year for the public.

When not studying or dancing, Laura also takes piano lessons and plays tennis and lacross in the Laurel extra-curricular athletic programs. She is generous to a fault, and always strives for perfection in everything she does.

Her best academic subjects, and those which she enjoys most, are history and science; however, carrying a 3.7 grade point average out of 4.0 possible points indicates that she really has no poor subjects. Laura wants to go into medicine upon graduation.

Her reasons for wanting to leave Laurel stem primarily from a feeling that it would be more stimulating for her in a co-educational environment.

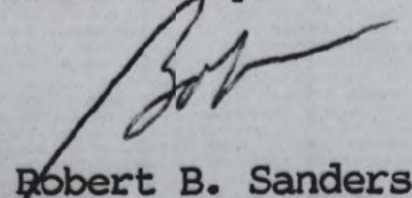

Although I am extremely prejudiced, I believe that she would be a great asset to the Hawken community.

Your letter should be directed to:

Mr. Frank Brandt

Hawken School

Thanks very much for your assistance.

Dear Mr. Brandt:

It is a pleasure to commend Laura Sanders as a prospective member of next fall's sophomore class.

I have known Laura and her family for many years. Laura has been a student in our Religious School since Kindergarten. She comes of good stock and is both an attractive and able young lady. Laura possesses a joyous spirit and an active and alert mind. She is a capable and cooperative student who does her assignments thoroughly and thoughtfully. She is liked both by her peers and the staff.

Laura is quite musical and has taken part in a number of musical presentations here at The Temple. She is an excellent dancer. I teach the Confirmation class and I found Laura to be responsive, quietly intelligent and an eager participant in discussions.

Knowing something of Hawken's standards, all our children are your graduates, it is a pleasure to commend her to you. She would make a contribution to the school.

Sincerely,

Dear Rabbi Silver,

The above named person has made application for employment in the Jewish Federation field and has given your name as reference.

Will you, therefore, kindly give us your candid opinion of the applicant's fitness for Federation employment. Specifically, please describe those qualities which you have been in a position to observe, with special emphasis on the unique factors, such as ability to take supervision, work with professional colleagues, maturity, capacity to relate to and understand lay leadership, and involvement in Jewish affairs.

It is our practice to include your letter of reference as part of the applicant's "profile" which is submitted for appropriate positions as they occur. If, for any reason, you do not wish to use your reference in this way, please advise us.

An early reply will be appreciated. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

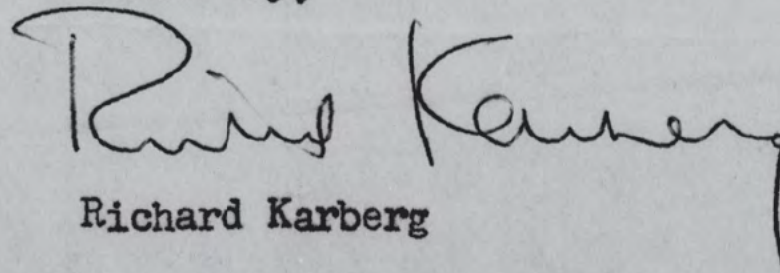

I am a faculty member at Cuyahoga Community College's Eastern Campus and teach art history and photography. I have worked on many photographic projects illustrating Cleveland's history including preparing the photographs for In My Day, an oral history of Cleveland Heights and also Merging Traditions published by the Western Reserve Historical Society and the Jewish Community Federation. This book and the resulting exhibit was a photographic documentation of Cleveland's Jewish community. I have also worked on many projects including the Cleveland Heritage Program with Dr. Thomas Campbell at Cleveland State University.

I am going to be on sabbatical next year and living in London where I intend to prepare a photographic documentation of neighborhood and ethnic life in British cities. I would like to have a letter of introduction from you to use, if needed, as I photograph synagogues and other structures related to the Jewish communities in British cities.

When I return I intend to prepare an exhibit incorporating photographs taken in the United Kingdom and those I took in Cleveland and other American cities.

I shall look forward to hearing from you,

Dear Ms. Quint:

It is a pleasure to commend to you Carol Lazerick. I have known Carol since she was a child in our Religious School. She comes from a fine and communally involved family. As a student in my Confirmation class, I found her intelligent, cooperative and a very pleasant person. That was long ago and I have had a number of chances to be with her as an adult. She has made her way into the career world and has always been involved with issues which involve people and learning and social concerns. She is an open and gentle person and has a mind of her own. I think she would make a fine contribution in the social work field.

Instructions to the applicant:

Please distribute reproductions of this form to persons whom you have asked to furnish letters of appraisal, and insure that the name and address of the Secretary of the Committee of Selection in the State in which application is made is correctly supplied in the space at the bottom.

Please sign one of the following statements: (It should be noted that the options indicated pertain only to the access which might be accorded to a student to materials in college or university files. Applicants have no claim to letters written on their behalf which are in possession of the Committees of Selection for the Rhodes Scholarships.)

I hereby forego any claim to access to letters of appraisal written on behalf of my application for a Rhodes Scholarship.

I do not wish to forego claim to access to letters of appraisal written on behalf of my application for a Rhodes Scholarship.

Information for the person from whom a letter of appraisal has been requested:

The person whose name is given above is an applicant for a Rhodes Scholarship. The Committee of Selection will be grateful if you will provide a frank statement regarding this applicant's qualifications. A reply by November 2nd will be helpful both to the Committee and the applicant.

The Committee will have available for study a copy of the applicant's academic transcript and a statement of extracurricular activities and interests. Detailed information which can enrich the Committee's understanding of these records will be especially welcomed. Academic referees should note that their letters written in behalf of a successful candidate will be used by Oxford colleges for determining the Rhodes Scholar-elect's suitability for admission. In the case of proposed graduate study, these letters will also be evaluated to ascertain the Rhodes Scholar-elect's qualifications for such advanced work. Consequently, detailed assessments of the candidate's academic qualifications will be particularly helpful.

In making its selections, the Committee is governed by that section of Cecil Rhodes's Will in which he specified the qualities he desired in his Scholars. Proven intellectual and academic quality of a high standard is the first quality required of applicants, but they will also be required to show integrity of character, interest in and respect for their fellow beings, the ability to lead and the energy to use their talents to the full. Mr. Rhodes believed that the last of these qualities was best tested through participation and success in sports, and it was his hope that the qualities of leadership and character would guide Scholars to esteem the performance of public duties as their highest aim.

You will naturally want to confine your remarks to those matters on which you can write from personal contact. It is not expected that you will be able to speak from first hand knowledge of the applicant's qualifications under all the categories. If you are primarily acquainted with the applicant through a teacher/student relationship, you are requested to concentrate particularly on academic quality and potential (bearing in mind that your reference will be used for admission procedures at Oxford University), although your assessment of the other qualities will be very welcome to the Committee. If, on the other hand, you are better acquainted with the applicant through non-academic interests, you are requested to concentrate on assessment of character in the knowledge that the Committee is looking for persons who show promise of outstanding achievement in later life. Please do not hesitate to speak of the applicant's limitations as well as strong points. Committees tend naturally to be dubious of appraisals that imply a given individual has no limitations whatever.

The Committee of Selection will begin evaluation of the credentials in late October. No assurance can be given that the Committee will be in a position to make use of letters received after November 2nd. The Committee deeply appreciates your help in this matter.

Please mail this form and your letter of appraisal to the Secretary of the Committee of Selection for:

Dear Bob:

I am writing this letter on behalf of Laura Ann Rosenfeld and as a recommendation for her Rhodes Scholarship. Laura is a lovely young woman, bright, committed and talented. She has had an exceptional young adulthood which includes much travel and a junior year abroad at Oxford as part of the Sarah Lawrence College Program. We met her in Oxford and found that she was having an interesting time of it what with being coxswain for Wadham College Men's Crew, being a member of the Economics Society, and just generally making the most out of the experience.

Laura is a bright girl whose progress from Hawken School to Columbia has been marked by distinction. She has had a variety of work and athletic experiences and, all in all, is well traveled and should take full advantage of a scholarship such as the Rhodes.

It is a pleasure to commend her to you.

Sincerely,

Daniel Jeremy Silver

Dear Rabbi Dan:

This letter is a request for a letter of recommendation on my behalf.

Since the autumn of 1985, I have been enrolled as a post-baccalaureate student in pre-medical studies at Cleveland State University.

I am currently applying for an academic position in a joint program sponsored by Touro College and Technion Institute in Israel.

As part of the application to this program, I have been requested to submit a letter of recommendation from a person who can comment on such background information relevant to my ability to study in Israel.

Since you have known me since my birth, through my association with your children in high school and my activities with The Temple, I believe you to be qualified to comment in my interest.

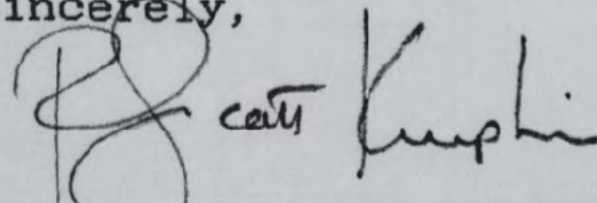

As you may recall, I have completed the full Temple curriculum, including elementary school, special hebrew classes, Bar Mitzvah, confirmation and high school. In addition, I was involved in some youth activities, and have played the shofar on several occasions.

Following graduation from Ohio State University, and until the autumn of 1985, I was employed as a working journalist and television news producer. I have enclosed a copy of my resume to provide you with these details.

I hope this letter finds your health improved.

Thank you for your consideration on this matter.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I AM WRITING THIS LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION WILLINGLY AND FOLLOWING A REQUEST OF SCOTT KRUPKIN.

SCOTT IS AN AMBITIOUS AND DEDICATED YOUNG MAN WHO WOULD DO VERY WELL IN AN ACADEMIC POSITION. MY KNOWLEDGE OF HIM GOES BACK TO SUNDAY SCHOOL DAYS AND RUNS CONTINUOUSLY UP TO THE PRESENT. HE WAS VERY ACTIVE IN THE TEMPLE FROM KINDERGARTEN THROUGH HIGH SCHOOL, INCLUDING THE SPECIAL HEBREW PROGRAM.

HE HAS RECENTLY WORKED AS A JOURNALIST AND TELEVISION NEWS PRODUCER AND IS CURRENTLY ENROLLED AS A PRE-MED STUDENT AT CLEVELAND STATE UNIVERSITY. HE HAS SERVED AS AN INSTRUCTOR IN BROADCAST JOURNALISM AT OUR COMMUNITY COLLEGE.

I RECOMMEND HIM HIGHLY, BOTH FOR HIS JEWISH AND GENERAL INTERESTS.

SINCERELY,

DANIEL JEREMY SILVER

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

MONA SENKFOR WAS EMPLOYED BY THE TEMPLE FROM 1975 TO 1985. HER TASK WAS TO BE SUPERVISOR OF THE TEMPLE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL. HER WORK INCLUDED HIRING AND FIRING OF TEACHERS, CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT, AND PARENT SCHOOL RELATIONSHIPS. SHE WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR A SCHOOL OF APPROXIMATELY 500 YOUNGSTERS. SHE DID A MAGNIFICENT JOB WITH THEM.

MONA DISCHARGED HER EVERY RESPONSIBILITY OF THE TEMPLE WITH TALENT AND SKILL. SHE IS A QUICK LEARNER AND A DELIGHTFUL PERSON TO WORK WITH.

I RECOMMEND HER HIGHLY.

SINCERELY,

TO THE RABBI: This student has applied to participate in a summer program in Israel which is sponsored by the Youth Division of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. We would appreciate your supplying the information requested below. Please file this report as soon as possible.

Please send the completed form directly to NFTY IN ISRAEL at the address given at the top of this form. Please do not return the completed form to the student for mailing. Naturally, all information in the form will be treated confidentially. Thank you very much for your help.

NFTY IN ISRAEL

1. Do you know this student personally? How well do you know this student? Student from first thru 9th
2. Please tell us what you know about the student's personality. Is he/she shy and reserved, loud and outspoken, serious, lighthearted, etc.? Low-keyed personality - on the shy side. but appears comfortable with people
3. Please tell us what you know about the student's ability to get along with his/her peers and those in positions of authority. Get along very well with those in authority and very well with her peers. Selects friends carefully and forms deep relationships.
4. Please tell us what you know about the student's emotional stability. Has the student had emotional problems? To what degree? Has he/she sought professional counseling? If yes, please explain. Emotionally stable. No difficulties. Problems have been appropriate for her age
5. Is the student flexible and adaptable to new and unfamiliar circumstances, or is he/she anxious, nervous, rigid? What is the student's frustration level? Flexible & adaptable if she chooses to be. Can cope with frustration and academic work and enjoys a challenge. Adores horses and is probably a fine rider

(please turn over)

6. Are there any family problems in the student's family of which you are aware? If yes, please explain. None

7. Does the student have any medical, drug or alcohol problems? If yes, please explain. None

8. Please share with us the level of the student's involvement in Jewish life and congregational activities (i.e. youth group, religious school, identification with Judaism and Jewish values, leadership potential, etc.). I believe she had a B.M. & then dropped her special Hebrew studies. Her interest here was mediocre during adolescent years. There is deep concern on the part of Reva's parents probably stemming from her. On the other hand, Reva's father not forced any to do this if any did not want to. Reva has a "Jewish" home and army, but then opposed to it all.

9. We would welcome any additional comments you think might be helpful to us. If you feel that we should talk directly with you in regard to this applicant, please let us know in this space.

10. I recommend this student for participation in the Israel Summer Program:
