Dear Dan:

Just a note of deep appreciation for your most gracious gift of your book on the Maimonidean Criticism and Controversy . I will read it with a great deal of interest.

I also have appreciated receiving the CCAR Journal which you edit.

We are looking forward to your being with us on Thanksgiving morning and eagerly anticipate your message. As Harry likes to wear his hood, perhaps you will want to bring yours. Then we will be set regardless of what decision we make. ✓

Cordially,

THE LITANY OF THANKSGIVING: (the Congregation will remain

The Minister: We thank thee, O God, for thy blessings. For all with which thou hast made them all.

The People: We thank thee, O God.

homes and healthful days, for our powers of mind and body, for faithful friends, for the joy of loving and being loved,

The People: We thank thee, O God.

The Minister: That it may please thee to bless with wisdom and

The People: We humbly beseech thee, O God.

The Minister: That it may please thee to solace all who have lost those whom they most loved, to uphold all who are sick and suffering, to protect such as have lost the kindly light of reason, and to supply the needs of the blind, the deaf, and the dumb,

The People: We humbly beseech thee, O God. Amen.

THE ANTHEM: "V'Ohavto" (Thou Shalt Love the Lord, Thy God)
Bernard Roman

Thou shalt love the Lord, thy God, with all thy heart, with all thy soul, with all thy might. And these words which I command thee this day shall be upon thy heart. Thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt speak of them when thou sittest in thy house, when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. Thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy hand and they shall be for frontlets between thine eyes. Thou shalt write them upon the doorposts of thy house and upon thy gates. That ye may remember and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God.
