Do We Mean What We Say? Do We Say What We Mean?, 1976.

to know to see 1955 decide UNCLAIMED property, By extension - we also 4 bag 1955 - 2 (the 1955) decided a conference of UNCLAIMED - loose 100% - a conference of ideas on ideas which eventually, see to the release, led to enact, serious balance, some we conduct days of These examples are signs of diffusion & they never can be a unilateral case - no one, any principle of centrality, unlike belated just - What are the principles we will not bend on - " " " practices which we will not compromise?

How are our private values Jewish? What is recognizably Jewish about our homes? Or are they basically no different than other middle class American homes? Or are a social and political values grow out of the Jewish tradition or do we simply call some garden variety of American liberalism Jewish?

Several years ago the CEA asked me to organize a Task Force on Jewish solidarity issues which examine the coherence - the Jewishness - of our movement - & to present, carefully, the needed criticism to a much needed discussion of commitments & standards & limits The Task Force set about its work, and found that it was necessary to position our movement accordingly:
