Common characteristics.

In this line may be noted with some accuracy a family of marriage & 2 apparent species of additional leaderships -- one represented by the Levi & another tribe of Israelites -- as shown from the records of the
