Abba Hillel Silver

Worthy representative of an ancient faith, with an open mind and a passionate devotion to truth, following its leadership and kindling the spirits of other men by your convictions, Western Reserve University confers upon you the degree of Doctor of Letters, honoris causa, and presents you to the oncoming generations of her students as the type and example of that which she is endeavoring to produce.

One generation shall praise Thy works to another. — Psalm 145:4

commends

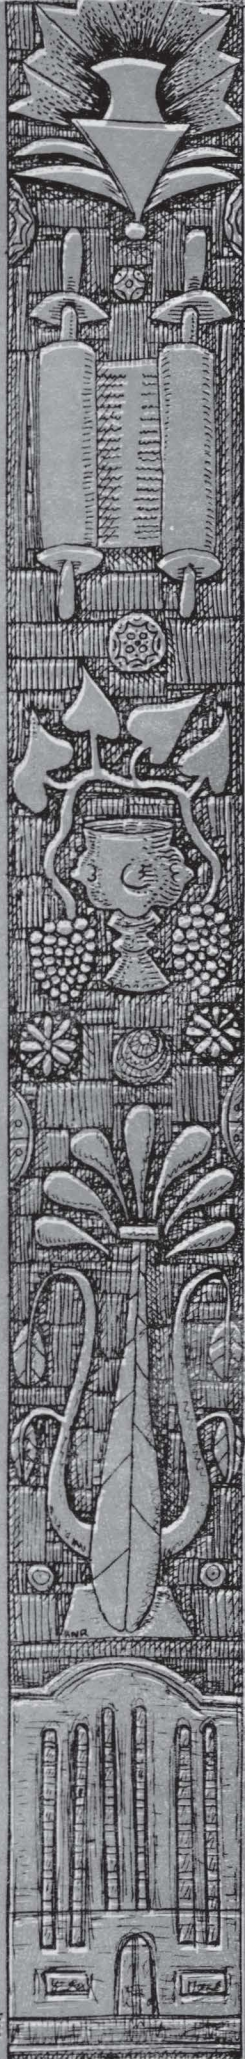

The Temple Cleveland, Ohio 1850

For faithful adherence to the ideals of Judaism
For countless contributions to the moral enrichment of our beloved nation
For its stalwart espousal of Reform Judaism

May the members of the congregation and its leadership, both lay and rabbinic, ever derive abundant gratification and merit divine favor for their devotion to our faith and for their deeds in its behalf . . .
